Croston

Hi-vis winter bomber jacket

639AA2EXA

The Croston jacket with its heavy canvas construction is highly suitable for harsh working conditions as it also has a good abrasion resistance. This practical bomber jacket has a pen pocket on the left arm and both the waist and the sleeve ends can be narrowed. For your comfort this jacket has also an elongated back. The quilted lining is detachable and the hood can be folded into the collar so you can adjust this jacket according to the weather.
